Albert William (Bert) Scott

Albert William Scott, the son of Thomas and Jane Douglass Scott, was born April 28, 1877, near Brooklyn. He died Friday, Sept. 21, 1956 at a Grinnell hospital following a long illness.

He grew up on the farm where he was born and had always made his home in and around Brooklyn. He was married to Nellie Deacon of Brooklyn, Dec. 20, 1899, and nine children were born to the couple. The family farmed north of Brooklyn until 1922 at which time they moved into Brooklyn. Mr. Scott had served as bridge foreman for Poweshiek county for about 22 years. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Brooklyn.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Nellie Scott of Brooklyn and the following five daughters and three sons; Mrs. Ramona Montgomery of Brooklyn, Walter Scott of Brooklyn, Mrs. Cliff (Florence) Schwartz of Grand Junction, Verna Scott of Waterloo, Mrs. Dolph (Margaret) Himschoot of Hudson, Mrs. Julius (Irene) Billick of Marshalltown, Wallace Scott of Brooklyn and Willis Scott of Brooklyn. He also leaves 21 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were his parents and one son, Delmar.

Funeral services were held Monday, Sept. 24 at Bramer's funeral home in charge of the Rev. G. H. Hulsebus, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, assisted by the Rev. E. W. F. Holler. Mrs. Ed Bartachek was organist.

Burial was in IOOF cemetery with Amos Reida, Joe Billick, Howard Patten, Harold Saylor, William Martin and Harry Robertson serving as pallbearers. In charge of the flowers were Mrs. Robert Belland, Mrs. Harold Saylor and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tinker.
