

Dorothyanne Scott

(Gifford)

Dorothyanne Scott, 88, of Mackinaw City, Mich., the mother of Helen B. Scott of Grinnell, died Saturday, Nov. 2, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Church of the Straights in Mackinaw City. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery there, with the Nordman Funeral Home of Cheboygan, Mich., in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Thomas and Mildred Bachman Haw, she was born in Manistee, Mich. She was raised and educated in Manistee and later in Detroit. She earned a B.A. degree from Wayne State University in Detroit.

She was married to Gifford Scott, and the couple lived in Detroit and Mackinaw City. She was an elementary school teacher for several years. She was a member of the American Association of University Women, Sigma Sigma sorority, the North Congregational Church of Detroit and a sewing study club. In Mackinaw City, she was a member of the Church of Straights and the Bliss Bunch and was active with the Mackinaw City Public Library.

Surviving are three daughters, Anne Scott of San Francisco, Helen B. Scott of Grinnell and Dorothy Anne Scott of Bain Bridge Island, Wash.; one son, Gerald of Grand Haven, Mich.; two brothers, Richard Haw of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Steve Haw of Carmel, Ind.; and nine grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; and two sisters, Allison Weber and Helena Guernsey.

Memorials may be made to the Michigan Nature Conservancy, Mackinaw City Public Library and St. Labre Indian School in Ashland, Mont.

H-R

Nov. 24, 1997