Mildred Scull Dies In Mahaska Hospital Services August 16

Reno

Mildred Scull, a life-long resident of Poweshiek County, died August 14 in Mahaska Hospital in Oskaloosa.

She was born Sept. 22, 1908, in Poweshiek County, the daughter of Wicham and Mattie Van Miller Caylor. She married Reno Scull May 13, 1944, in Smith Center, Kan., and had taught school in Poweshiek and Jasper County schools.

For the last 10 years she taught elementary classes for the Lynnville-Sully school district.

She is survived by her husband, Reno, a daughter, Mrs. Marcia Kellogg of LeGrand, a daughter, Joyce Scull who remains at home, her mother, Mrs. Mattie Caylor of New Sharon, and one granddaughter, Michele.

She was a member of the Mary White Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star.

Services for Mildred Scull were held Wednesday, Aug. 14, at the Lynnville Friends church, with the Rev. Peter Schuler officiating.

Organist was Mrs. Howard Macy and serving on the flower committee were Mrs. Cliff Crews, Mrs. Melvin Geurts, Mrs. Charles W. Reno, and Mrs. Marjorie McArtor.

Pallbearers were Ira Wymore, Harmon Wymore, Jack Miller, Keith Miller, Charles W. Renaud, and Edward Renaud.

Burial was at Stewart cemetery.
