Jane Seeland services held

Jane C. Seeland, 82, of Park Place in Grinnell died Sunday, Oct. 11, at St. Francis Manor where she had lived for the past two years.

Services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the United Church of Christ-Congregational, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad officiating. Organist was Alice Renaud, and pallbearers were Charles W. DeLong, Carl Fenner, David Hamilton, Jack Mathews, Michael R. O'Harra, Richard Ramsey, Dion Schrack and James Urfer. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Memorials may be made to St. Francis Manor and left at the funeral home.

She was born June 15, 1905, in Tullahoma, Tenn., the daughter of Michael Ransom and Williebelle Riddle Campbell. She attended Fitzgerald and Clark Academy in Tullahoma, graduating in 1923. She was a 1926 graduate of Ward-Belmont College in Nashville, Tenn.

On Nov. 7, 1931, she was married to Richard Carl Seeland in Tullahoma. The couple lived in Chicago briefly before coming to Grinnell in 1932. Mrs. Seeland was a member of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, the DAR, Chapter B.M. of P.E.O., and the Grinnell General Hospital Auxiliary.

She is survived by her husband, Dick; two daughters, Ann Raridon of Newton and Emily State of Kearney, Neb.; five grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister, Emily Campbell Crouch.
