Lila Vogt Sharrar, 94, of Orange, Calif., formerly of the Malcom area, died Tuesday, Feb. 24, at Coast Hospital, Santa Ana, Calif.

Graveside services were conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday at Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The daughter of William and Mary Hall, she was born on Aug. 26, 1892, in Montezuma. She attended Montezuma schools, graduating from high school in 1910. She later attended Drake University and taught in rural schools near Montezuma before her marriage to Otto B. Vogt on Jan. 14, 1915. The couple farmed in the Montezuma and Malcom areas.

Mr. Vogt died in 1961. On Sept. 7, 1967, she was married to Charles Sharrar in Bradenton, Fla. Following the death of her second husband, she lived with a daughter for 12 years.

Mrs. Sharrar was a member of the Malcom Presbyterian Church.

She is survived by her children, William Vogt of Montezuma and Pauline Shaw of Orange; four grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.
