

C. W. Shaul Dies 6th 1-17- 1953 In California

Warren Shaul received a telegram last evening that his brother, C. W. Shaul, had died at his home in Riverside, Calif., following a relapse of the flu. Mr. Shaul moved from Grinnell to Riverside about six years ago. Since residing in California Mr. Shaul has been working as head man in a fruit house. While in Grinnell he was employed at the Snyder Bros. furniture store from the time Charles and Ollie Snyder took it over, and stayed there for eight years. Prior to that time he was with J. W. Harpster in the location of the Smith Furniture Co.

Mr. Shaul is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Ermal, who is a teacher in the Riverside schools.
