JEROME

Requiem Mass On Tuesday For Elizabeth Sheehy

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Sheehy, 79, wife of Jerry Sheehy of Searsboro, died suddenly Saturday morning at a Des Moines hospital. She had fallen a week earlier and suffered a broken hip.

Requiem high mass will be held at 9 a.m. Tuesday from St. Mary's Catholic church with the Rev. Wilfred Sheehy as celebrant. The Rev. L. V. Kuebrich, pastor of the Grinnell church, will deliver the sermon. Rosary will be recited at the Smith Funeral Home at 8 p.m. tonight (Monday).

Burial will be in the Catholic section of Glendale cemetery at Des Moines.

Born at Monroe on May 14th, 1884, she attended schools there and graduated from high school. She lived in Monroe and Des Moines for a number of years and was united in marriage with Jerry Sheehy at Sacred Heart church in Newton on Jan. 8th, 1936, by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor T. J. McCann. They had made their home in Searsboro since that time.

She was a member of St. Mary's Catholic church in Grinnell, the Altar and Rosary Society of the church, and the St. Francis Hospital Auxiliary.

Survivors include her husband, Jerry; two brothers, Dan Clifford and Will Clifford of Des Moines; two sisters, Mrs. H. H. Hummel of Des Moines and Mrs. Jerome Coakley of Monroe.

Also surviving are five step children: the Rev. Wilford L. Sheehy, SAC, of Dunseith, N. D.; Kenneth Sheehy of Denver, Colo.; Francis Sheehy of Chicago, Ill.; Ralph Sheehy of San Diego, Calif.; and Mrs. Harold (Mildred) Vincent of Fergus Falls, Minn.; eight step grandchildren; and 10 step great grandchildren.
