

Stover Sheets services held

Stover M. Sheets, 68, of Rte. 2, Malcom, died Thursday morning at his home of an apparent heart attack. 3-15

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. John Maze of Grinnell officiating. Organist was Alma Kiner. Pallbearers were Walter Bond, Marvin Kolars, Norman Schroder, William Tinkle, Russell Tuttle, and Allan Willett. Flower bearers were Kenneth and Lois Gross and Ross and Jean Mitchell.

Burial was at the I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Brooklyn.

The son of Robert and Mary Ella Sheets, he was born March 16, 1910, near Brooklyn. He attended rural schools and later attended Brooklyn High School.

On Dec. 9, 1933, he was married to Mable Irene Parker in Des Moines. Following their marriage, the couple lived on farms near Barnes City, Victor and Brooklyn. They had lived on their present farm for the past 14 years.

Mr. Sheets is survived by his wife, Mabel; his daughter, Yvonne K. Sheets of Grinnell; one granddaughter; and two brothers, Wayne and Raymond Sheets, both of Brooklyn. He was preceded in death by his parents; one daughter, Patsy Ann, who died in infancy; and a son, Robert Sheets, who died in 1967.