

Rites Thursday For Charles W. Sherwood

Funeral services for Charles W. Sherwood were held last Thursday afternoon at two o'clock at the Hartwick Congregational church in charge of the Rev. C. W. Woollard, pastor of Grace Methodist church of Brooklyn. Mrs. Everett Korn, pianist, accompanied Mrs. Calvin Korn singing, "Only Shadows" and "Sunrise."

Interment was in the Hartwick cemetery with the following grandsons serving as pallbearers: Wayne Keefe, James Sherwood, Steve Sherwood, Daryl Sherwood, Jerry Anderson and Eddie Gross. In charge of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yount, Mrs. Walter Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Al Voelkel and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Price.

Mr. Sherwood, 80 years old, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Gross, with whom he had lived for the past five years. Previous to that time and following the death of his wife in 1954, he had lived for three years at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Norris Anderson, in Belle Plaine.

Charles William Sherwood, son of Stephen A. Sherwood and Josephine Shoemaker Sherwood, was born at Deep River April 24, 1882, and died October 7, 1962. He married Amy Hakeman Feb. 1, 1905, at Victor and the family lived near Hartwick many years.

His early life was spent in the Deep River vicinity where he became a member of the Christian church. Throughout his life he maintained his membership in the church which his parents had been instrumental in founding. He took an active part in the Hartwick Congregational church for 38 years.

He is survived by six children. They are Mrs. Harry (Marietta) Patten of Maquoketa, Mrs. Kenneth (Helen) Gross of Brooklyn, Howard Sherwood of Hartwick, Edward Sherwood of Dike and Mrs. Norris (Dorothy) Anderson and Richard Sherwood of Belle Plaine. He also leaves 24 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were his wife; one son, Garold; one daughter, Mrs. Mrs. Albert (Iola) Lender; three grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; two brothers, Harry and Frankie Sherwood, and four sisters, Mrs. Jessie Sweeney, Mrs. Gertie Bramley, Mrs. Myrtle Faust and Mrs. Lottie Fahrney. He also leaves other relatives including a nephew, Burton Faust of Washington D.C. who had arrived here to visit Mr. Sherwood a few days prior to his death.
