Belle Plaine Rites For Mrs. Myrtle Sherwood

Funeral services for Mrs. Myrtle Sherwood of Belle Plaine, 84, were held August 19 at Peffers Funeral Home in Belle Plaine with the Rev. Alvin Boettcher officiating. Burial was in the Hartwick cemetery with Calvin Kornis, Oscar Messerli, Bernard Mc Ilrath, Adolph Chvala, Lloyd Lambert and Charles Ostrom serving as pallbearers.

Myrtle Alice Fisher, daughter of Margaret and Luther Fisher, was born Aug. 16, 1881, on a farm south of Belle Plaine. She died August 17 at the Marengo hospital.

On Aug. 21, 1901, she was married to Harry Sherwood of Deep River. The couple farmed north of Hartwick until moving to Belle Plaine where Mr. Sherwood died in 1939.

She is survived by the following five children: Violet Osborne of Ames, Leota Bender of Des Moines, Virgil Sherwood of Brooklyn, Robert Sherwood of Belle Plaine and Lowell Sherwood of Percival. She also leaves 15 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, a brother, Charles Fisher of Cedar Rapids and a sister, Jessie Irwin of California.
