

Jim Sibley H-R. Dies In Indiana

H-R May 24, 1956
Arthur John Sibley, better known to his Grinnell friends as Jim, died of a heart attack Wednesday of last week in Frankfort, Ind., where he was general superintendent of the Swift & Co. soybean plant. His connection with Swift's had extended over 23 years. He was 49 years old.

Mr. Sibley was born in Grinnell, June 27, 1906, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sibley. He grew to manhood in Grinnell, graduating from Grinnell high school in 1924. After attending Grinnell college for one year, he completed the engineering course at Iowa State college in Ames. He was a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. He entered the employment of Swift & Co. in 1933.

He is survived by his wife, the former Geraldine Atchinson of Sioux City; two daughters, Sandra Sue and Bonnie Jean; his mother, Adelaide; a brother, Harry W. Sibley of Kingsley, Ia.; and a sister, Mrs. John H. Rule of Little Rock, Ark.

After funeral services in Frankfort, Thursday evening, the body was taken to Sioux City where additional services were held preceding the burial.
