

H-12.
Monday, July 13, 1960

Kellogg Services Held Sunday For Ruby Simpson, 62

Mose

Funeral services for Mrs. Mose (Ruby) Simpson, 72, Kellogg, were held Sunday afternoon at the Kellogg Methodist church. Mrs. Simpson died Friday morning at a Des Moines hospital.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. Floyd Newbrough of Colo, former pastor of the Kellogg church. Interment was in Our Silent City cemetery at Kellogg.

The daughter of Stephen and Rose Ann Dobbs, she was born Sept. 11th, 1897, in Mt. Pisgah, Ky. She was educated in the Mt. Pisgah schools and married Mose Simpson on Nov. 4th, 1921. He preceded her in death.

Mrs. Simpson had been a resident of Kellogg since 1920. She was a member of the Kellogg Methodist church.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Willard (Dorothy) Gullet of near Newton; a son, Raymond of Kellogg; four grandsons; four sisters, Mrs. Neil Barbary of Newton, Mrs. John Alexander of Grinnell, Mrs. Lura Belvins of Somerset, Ky., and Mrs. Lola Hurt of Cooper, Ky.; and four brothers, Hubert Dobbs of Lynnville, Edward Dobbs of Grinnell, Berry Dobbs and Frank Dobbs, both of Somerset, Ky.