Mrs. Julia Skiles Succumbs Here Sunday Morning

James H.

Mrs. Julia Galt Skiles, 635 Broad Street, passed away Sunday morning at a local hospital.

Funeral services for Mrs. Skiles will be Monday (today) at 3 p.m. at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home. The Rev. Leland Mann will officiate and the organist will be Mrs. Kathleen Heffner.

Graveside services and interment will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Rose Hill Cemetery in Shenandoah.

The daughter of Martin H. and Clara Spilman Galt, she was born October 25, 1870, near Shenandoah, Iowa. She attended the rural school of that community and one term in Shenandoah high school.

She was united in marriage to the Rev. James H. Skiles in 1902. Rev. Skiles served as pastor in Farragut, Glenwood, Elson and Miles, Iowa. In 1922 they retired and moved to Shenandoah and the Rev. Mr. Skiles passed away a few years later. In June of 1953 she moved to Grinnell and made her home in Mayflower Home. Since June, 1957, she has made her home with her brother Elmer W. Galt.

Mrs. Skiles is survived by her brother Elmer W. Galt of Grinnell, a half brother Martin H. Galt of Hartford, Conn. Besides her husband she was preceded in death by her parents, six brothers and two step sisters.

She was a member of the First Congregational Church and the Womens Fellowship of this church.
