

Dock Slagle ^{H.R.} Rites Friday

^{9/3/74}
Dock E. Slagle, 85, a resident of Grinnell since 1914, died Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 3, following an extended illness.

The son of William and Artemia Slagle, he was born May 19, 1889, at Mount Pisgah, Ky., and received his education in the schools of that community. He came to Iowa in 1912, and on Oct. 2, 1914, he was married to Bertha Guffey in Wayne County, Ky.

The couple had six children: Mrs. Kenneth (Gretchen) Gross of Newton; Mrs. Truman (Gilma) Lynch of Rosemont, Minn.; William Willard Slagle of Tama; Walter Slagle, who preceded him in death in 1925; and Mrs. Wayne (Jean) Puls and Mrs. Floyd (Elsie) Hunter, both of Grinnell.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Slagle moved to Grinnell where Mr. Slagle was employed by the Spaulding Company. They farmed in the Rock Creek community for some time, then returned to Grinnell where Mr. Slagle worked for Sanger Plumbing and Heating Co. For a number of years, he also operated his own plumbing firm.

Mr. Slagle was a member of the Baptist Church.

He is survived by his wife; his children; a grandson, Dan Slagle, whom the couple raised; a sister, Mollie Smith of Columbus, Ohio; 16 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his son, his parents, one sister and four brothers.

Funeral services for Mr. Slagle will be held at 3 p.m. Friday, Sept. 6, at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home, with the Rev. Hugh A. Shiveley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial will be in Rock Creek Cemetery.
