

William Slagle

William "Bill" Slagle, 53, of Brooklyn died at his home Wednesday, ~~Nov. 6~~

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at Grace United Methodist Church in Brooklyn, with the Rev. William Daylong officiating. Organist was Angie Hawkins, and casket bearers were David Dolmage, Tom Ahrens, Bill Nagle, Jim Calderwood, Larry Manning and Roger Van Ersvelde. Burial was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

The son of Glenn Harold and Fern Ione Thompson Slagle, he was born Aug. 18, 1943, in Montezuma. He received his education in Brooklyn, graduating from high school in 1961. He then attended the University of Iowa.

He served with the Army National Guard from 1964 to 1970. He worked in food management and ~~was a salesman for a number of~~ years. Since 1989, he had been manager of the Elks Lodge in Grinnell. He had been a resident of Brooklyn for the past 13 years.

He was a member of Grace United Methodist Church of Brooklyn and the American Restaurant Association. He was certified as a food-management professional.

Surviving are a daughter, Kimberly Morris of Durant, Okla.; one son, Scott of Des Moines; his parents; one brother, Robert Slagle of Malcom; and two sisters, Theda May of Malcom and Linda Walz of Tama.

William "Bill" Slagle, 53

William "Bill" Slagle, 53, of Brooklyn, died in his home Wednesday, Nov. 6, 1996.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Nov. 6 in the Grace United Methodist Church in Brooklyn. Rev. William Daylong officiated and the organist was Angie Hawkins. Casket-bearers were David Dolmage, Tom Ahrens, Bill Nagle, Jim Calderwood, Larry Manning and Roger Van Ervelde. Burial was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

William Glenn Slagle, son of Glenn Harold Slagle and Fern Ione Thompson Slagle, was born August 18, 1943, in Montezuma.

Bill received his education at Brooklyn graduating from high school in 1961. He then attended the University of Iowa at Iowa City. Bill served with the Army National Guard from April 9, 1964 to April 8, 1970.

Bill worked in food management and was a salesman for a number of years. Since 1989, Bill has been the manager of Elks BPO Lodge #1266 of Grinnell and has been a resident of Brooklyn for the past 13 years.

He was a member of the Grace United Methodist Church of Brooklyn and a member of American Restaurant Association, certified as a food management professional.

Bill is survived by his daughter, Kimberly and her husband, Clinton Morris of Durant, Oklahoma; his son Scott of Des Moines; his parents, Glenn and Fern Slagle of Brooklyn; one brother and his wife, Robert and Patricia Slagle of Malcom; and two sisters and their husbands, Theda and Robert May of Malcom and Linda and Roger Walz of Tama.

MR November 27, 1996

William 'Bill' Slagle

Funeral services were held Saturday morning, Nov. 9, in the Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn, for William "Bill" Slagle, 53, who died in his home Wednesday, Nov. 6, 1996.

The Rev. William Daylong officiated and the organist was Angie Hawkins. Casketbearers were David Dolmage, Tom Ahrens, Bill Nagel, Jim Calderwood, Larry Manning and Roger Van Ervelde. Interment was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery.

William Glenn Slagle, son of Glenn Harold Slagle and Fern Ione Thompson Slagle, was born Aug. 18, 1943, in Montezuma.

Bill received his education at Brooklyn, graduating from high school in 1961. He then attended the University of Iowa at Iowa City. He served with the Army National Guard from April 9, 1964, to April 8, 1970.

Bill worked in food management and was a salesman for a number of years. Since 1989, Bill has been the manager of Elks BPO Lodge #1266 of Grinnell and has been a resident of Brooklyn for the past 13 years.

He was a member of the Grace United Methodist Church of Brooklyn and a member of American Restaurant Association, certified as a food management professional.

Surviving are his daughter, Kimberly, and her husband, Clinton Morris of Durant, Okla.; his son, Scott of Des Moines; his parents, Glenn and Fern Slagle of Brooklyn; one brother and his wife, Robert and Patricia Slagle of Malcom; and two sisters and their husbands, Theda and Robert May of Malcom and Linda and Roger Walz of Tama.

BC November 13, 1996