MYRTLE SLATER

H-R 12-20-56

Myrtle Edna, daughter of Lora Culler and James W. Norris was born in Grinnell, February 26, 1888 and passed away December 17th, 1956 after an illness of three years.

She received her education in the Grinnell public schools and after her graduation from high school attended business college in Des Moines, Iowa.

Upon returning to Grinnell she was employed in the office of the Spaulding Manufacturing Company.

February 2, 1913 she was united in marriage to Loyal B. Slater; for a number of years they made their home in Burlington where they were in business; later in Davenport until leaving there to make her permanent home in Grinnell.

Since living in Grinnell she had been employed by the Morrison-Shults Mfg. Co. as office assistant to Mr. C. A. Thompson.

She was a member of the Methodist church of Grinnell and always enjoyed attending

Sunday morning services.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents and a sister.

Surviving are her brothers Raymond and Paul Norris of Grinnell, one sister Katherine (Mrs. Charles Moots) of Lafayette, Indiana, a nephew James Wilson Norris now in the service stationed at Newport, Rhode Island, and a niece Sara L. Norris a freshman student at Grinnell college.

Services were held Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. at the Smith Funeral Home in charge of Rev. John DeLong of the Methodist church. Music was played on the organ by Mrs. Rhee Auman. Pallbearers were Gael Burk, Lyman Case, Max Hays, Ben Reynolds, Cliff Thompson and Clark Wilson. Flower bearers were Mrs. Gael Burk and Mrs. Clark Wilson.

Interment was in Hazelwood.
