

Vernon J. Sloan, D.O.

Vernon J. Sloan, D.O., 69, of No. 1 Fifteenth Ave. Ct., Grinnell, died of a heart attack at his home Friday, Aug. 2.

Following cremation, a memorial service was conducted Monday at Union Church in Quasqueton, with the Rev. William Arms officiating. Fraternal rites were conducted by Edward Armstead and members of the Masonic Lodge in Independence, with burial in Resthaven Cemetery, Cincinnati, Ohio.

A memorial in Dr. Sloan's name has been established with the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children and Burns Institute. Contributions may be left at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell.

The son of Dr. Vernon J. and Florence Tanner Sloan Sr., he was born June 26, 1922, in Norwood, Ohio. He attended Kentucky Military Institute, the University of Kentucky and the University of Cincinnati. He received his D.O. degree from the College of Osteopathic medicine and Surgery in Kirksville, Mo., interning in Joplin, Mo.

On Aug. 10, 1947, he was married to Jo Ann Tindall in Woden, Iowa. He practiced in Quasqueton for 21 years and in New Smyrna Beach, Fla., for 15 years before coming to Grinnell in April 1989.

Cincinnati. He was preceded in death by his father and a half-sister, Patricia Sloan.

Dr. Sloan was a fellow of the American College of Osteopathic General Practice. He served as president of the American Osteopathic College of General Practitioners and was one of the organizers and served as president of the Iowa College of General Practice of Osteopathic Medicine. He was an active Mason and was past master of Prospect Masonic Lodge in Quasqueton and a member of the Consistory and the El Kahir Shrine, both in Cedar Rapids. While in New Smyrna Beach, he was a member of the Elks Lodge and the First Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Jo Ann; two sons, Vernon J III of Corona, Calif., and William H. of Quasqueton; two granddaughters; his mother, Florence Waggoner of Cincinnati; and a half-sister, Audrey I. Carpenter of

H - R August 5, 1991