

C. Z. Smith Of <sup>6-14</sup> <sup>5-23</sup> Kellogg Dies

(By a Staff Correspondent)

Kellogg, Ia., May 23, Special:

C. Z. Smith died suddenly at his home northeast of town Tuesday of last week. He had been in failing health for some time but was able to keep going and his condition was not considered serious.

Funeral services were held at the Christian church here Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. Ernest McAninch, pastor of the local M. E. church in charge. Members of Loyal Grange, which he had served as Master attended in a body and graveside rites were conducted by members of Meridian lodge 280 A.F. and A.M. with T. H. Vinall giving the impressive ceremony. Burial was made in Our Silent City.

Charles Zellar Smith was born in Hickory Grove township, October 25, 1876. He was united in marriage to Miss Edith Shill, March 7, 1903, the couple making their home in and near Kellogg since that time. They moved to the farm March 1 of this year.

While in town Mr. Smith was manager of the local Shipping association. He was a member of Loyal Grange and had served as Master; a member of the Masonic lodge and active in affairs of the local Methodist Episcopal church. Surviving relatives include his aged mother Mrs. Sarah Smith, his wife Mrs. Edith Smith, and three sisters Mrs. H. F. Bobzin, Mrs. Simon Anderson and Mrs. Mary Giles of this place; a sister and brother Mrs. Lee Heltzel and Joe Smith of Newburg; and two brothers, John and Ben of Olathe, Colorado.
