

Dolores Smith

Dolores "Deke" Ann Larson Smith, 67, of No. 7 College Park Rd., Grinnell, died at her home Tuesday, June 21.

A memorial service will be conducted at 7 p.m. Friday, July 1, at the Grinnell United Methodist Church. The family will welcome guests in Fellowship Hall immediately following the service. The nursery will be available during the service and fellowship time.

Memorials in Mrs. Smith's name may be made to Stewart Library.

She was the daughter of John "Augie" and Alice Larson and was born June 26, 1926, in Moline, Ill. She graduated from North Park Junior College in Chicago and Iowa State University. She earned a certificate of secondary education from Grinnell College.

She was married to Max A. Smith Oct. 23, 1949, in Moline. They had lived in Grinnell since 1950.

Mrs. Smith had worked at Stewart Library, Burling Library on the Grinnell College campus and Grinnell Travel Agency. She served on the Stewart Library board, the Grinnell Community Art Gallery Committee, the Art Committee of Grinnell Regional Medical Center and as a Hospice Grinnell volunteer. She also worked with the Junior Great Books Program and, in earlier years, as a Camp Fire, Blue Bird and 4-H leader. She was recently a co-project coordinator of "Grinnell's Voices of the Past," an oral history of the community.

Surviving are her husband; a son, Bruce T. of Kankakee, Ill.; a daughter, Karna L. Bosman of Urbandale; and four grandchildren.

MAX A.
