

H-R August 25,
1977

Nona K. Smith (R04) services held

Nona K. Smith, 87, died Monday morning at the Mayflower Home Health Care Center. 8-22

Memorial services were held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday in Denison Chapel at the Mayflower Home, with the Rev. Philip Ramstad, pastor of the Grinnell United Church of Christ—Congregational, officiating. Music was provided by Mrs. Gladys Holt. Eastern Star services were conducted by Mrs. Donna Keup, worthy matron, and members of Beulah Chapter No. 47 at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home.

Burial was the the Mount Emblem Cemetery, Elmhurst, Ill.

The daughter of Charles A. and May Engle Reynolds, she was born June 7, 1890, at Canton, S.D. She graduated from Canton High School and later attended South Dakota Normal School.

On Aug. 12, 1912, she was married to Roy E. Smith at Canton. Following their marriage, they moved to Ames where Mr. Smith was an associate professor of soil chemistry at Iowa State University. The couple later lived in Fergus Falls, Minn., and Gull Lake, Saskatchewan, Canada, before returning to Eureka Springs, Ark.

Following her husband's death in 1947, Mrs. Smith moved to Johnson City, Tenn. She attended East Tennessee State College and studied art.

In March 1961, she came to Grinnell to live at the Mayflower Home. She was active in the arts and crafts programs there. Mrs. Smith was a member of the Grinnell United Church of Christ—Congregational and was a 50-year member of the Order of Eastern Star.

She is survived by her children, Charles T. Smith of Lombard, Ill., and Mrs. Lyman (Katherin) Wilson of Warsaw, Ind.; five grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents, a daughter, Mrs. Shirley Potter; and a brother, Albert W. Reynolds.