

H-R May 3,
Winnie Smith

dies at 68

1979

Winnie Kathryn Smith, 68, of Grinnell died April 29 at the Iowa Veterans Home in Marshalltown.

The daughter of William Preston and Jennie Belle Alderman Tish, she was born March 21, 1911, in Union Township. She was graduated from Montezuma High School in 1930.

She was married to Evan Calhoun, and the couple lived in What Cheer, Malcom and Montezuma.

She served with the Women's Army Corps in 1943.

In 1947, she was married to Ray W. Smith. They made their home in the Chicago area, where Mr. Smith died in 1959. For the past six years, Mrs. Smith had lived in Grinnell. She had lived at the Marshalltown Veterans Home since March 1.

Mrs. Smith was a member of the Christian Church in Montezuma. She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, two brothers and one sister.

Survivors include four sons, Richard Calhoun of Bethany, Mo., James Calhoun of Nevada, Norman Calhoun of Cedar Falls, and Franklin Smith of San Diego, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. Jack (Julia) Taylor of Fort Worth, Tex., Mrs. John (Joanne) Caputo of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. Sam (Jayne) Turk of Plano, Tex.; 16 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; three sisters, Doris Wilsterman of Montezuma, Nellie Thompson of Jackpot, Nev., and Mable Wolfe of Oskaloosa; and one brother, Harry Tish of Swea City.

Ray W.