

MAE SCHRADER (HAROLD)

Mrs. Mae Schrader, 86, of Brooklyn died Monday afternoon, Nov. 15, in Brookhaven Nursing home, Brooklyn, where she had been a resident the past four years.

Services for Mrs. Schrader were held at 10:30 a.m. Nov. 18 in the Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn. Rev. Torger Johnson, pastor of United Methodist New Covenant Parish of Victor, officiated.

The organist was Mrs. Anita Ormiston and the soloist was Terry Osborne. Selections were "Beyond the Sunset" and "Amazing Grace". Flower attendants were Mrs. Linda Mullen and Mrs. Kathy Froehlich.

Casketbearers were Jim Bim, Dean Lippincott, Dale Lippincott, Lorraine Baustian, Norman DeGeeter, and Stanley Walford. Interment was in Brooklyn cemetery. The Nevenhoven Funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Mae Grace Schrader, daughter of William and Susan Gittens Jones, was born Feb. 21, 1907 in Williamsburg. Mrs. Schrader received her education in Williamsburg and was graduated from high school in 1925.

On June 24, 1928 she was united in marriage to Harold Schrader in Ladora. They farmed southeast of Brooklyn until their retirement when they moved into Brooklyn.

Mrs. Schrader was a 58-year member of the Grace United Methodist Church, UMW, a 50-year member of Eastern Star, a charter member of the Columbian Club, a member of Iowa Federated Women, and Kum-Joy-Nus Club.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, and one sister. Surviving are her husband, Harold; three sisters, Mrs. Alice Ablard of Burlington, Anna Beth Jones of Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Elcanor Mae Allison of West Linn, Ore.; and several nieces and nephews.

BC. 11-24-93