

A-12 January 21, 1985
Doris Schueler services held

Doris Schueler, 67, died of cancer Thursday morning, Jan. 17, at a Marshalltown nursing home.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Gilman United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Donna Van Maanen, pastor of the church, officiating. Organist was Mickey Thompson, and pallbearers were Randi Johnson, Carl Kvinlaug, Charles Matney Jr., Marvin Medhus, Gene Patterson, Bob Stewart and Albert Ward Jr. Burial was in Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman.

The daughter of Chester and Alice Steen Van Cleave, she was born Dec. 28, 1917, at New Sharon. She graduated from New Sharon High School in 1936.

On Nov. 6, 1938, she was married to Walter J. (Rusty) Schueler. They lived in Gilman since their marriage.

Mrs. Schueler was a member of the Gilman United Methodist Church for 47 years and was past president of the United Methodist Women for 20 years. She was also a charter member of the Gilman Today and Tomorrow Women's Club and had worked as a representative for Avon products for 20 years.

She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Connie Byngelson of Idaho Falls, Idaho, and Jeri Jeffries of Marshalltown; one grandson; one brother, Jack Van Cleave of Montezuma; and three sisters, Geraldine Harris of LaPine, Ore., Audrey Johnson of Gilman and Helen Versteegh of New Sharon.