

Grace Seye H-R

Grace M. Seye, 96, of Grinnell, a former resident of the Brooklyn-Guernsey area, died Tuesday, July 23, at Friendship Manor in Grinnell.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home in Brooklyn, with Dwight Kennedy officiating. Interment was at Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn. Casket bearers were Joshua Worley, Roger Potter, Larry Worley, Thom Stow and Gene Wedeking.

She was the daughter of Emil and Emma Depeapa Austerlink and was born July 24, 1905, in Portland, Ore.

She was married to Henry H. Gosselin in Detroit, Mich. in 1930. He died in 1945. On Nov. 27, 1947, she was married to Emiel Seye in Atkinson, Ill. They farmed in rural Brooklyn for many years. Mr. Seye died in 1978.

Mrs. Seye moved to Grinnell and in recent years had been a resident of Friendship Manor.

She attended Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Newton.

Surviving are her son, Robert Gosselin of Detroit; a sister, Mary Neuleib of Tecumseh, Mich.; and two grandsons. 7-29-2002