

Harold Squiers

Harold S. Squiers, 87, of Chelsea died Sunday, May 18, in Grinnell.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at Hrabak Funeral Home in Chelsea, with the Rev. Ronald VanHeukelom, pastor of the Brooklyn Presbyterian Church, officiating. Pallbearers were Jay, Nathan, Gil and Phillip Squiers; Mike Ledvina; and Scott Muzzy. Honorary bearers were Mandy, Sonja, Shelley, Casie, Janet, Tiffany and Crystal Squires and Connie Ledvina.

Burial was in Rector Cemetery, Chelsea.

He was the son of Sumner and Eva Walker Squiers and was born Dec. 17, 1909, in Chelsea. He attended Haven School and worked for area farmers.

He was married to Esther Ryan Nov. 28, 1935, in rural Chelsea, where the couple lived all their married life.

He was a farmer until his retirement and was a member of the Brooklyn Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are his wife; three sons, Keith and David of Chelsea and Rex of Des Moines; one daughter, Phyllis of Eagan, Minn.; three grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and one brother, Frank of Toledo.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two sons, Dale and Dennis; two brothers, Wallace and Donald; and one sister, Ione.

BC June 4, 1997

Harold S. Squiers

Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 21, at Hrabak Funeral Home in Chelsea, for Harold S. Squiers, 87, who died Sunday, May 18, 1997, in the Grinnell Regional Medical Center from complications of cancer. The Rev. Ronald Van Heukelom, pastor of the Brooklyn Presbyterian Church, officiated. Pallbearers were Jay Squiers, Phillip Squiers, Gil Squiers, Nathan Squiers, Scott Muzzy and Mike Ledvina. Honorary bearers were Sonja Squiers, Shelley Squiers, Mandy Squiers, Janet Squiers, Crystal Squiers, Tiffany Squiers, Casie Squiers and Connie Ledvina. Burial was in Rector Cemetery, Chelsea.

Harold was born Dec. 17, 1909, in Chelsea, the son of Sumner and Eva Walker Squiers. He attended Haven School and worked for area farmers as a young man.

He was married to Esther Ryan Nov. 28, 1935, at her parents' home in rural Chelsea, where the couple lived all their married life.

He was a farmer until his retirement and was a member of the Brooklyn Presbyterian Church.

Preceding him in death were two sons, Dale and Dennis, two brothers, Wallace and Donald, and one sister, Ione.

Survivors are his wife, Esther, three sons, Keith and David of Chelsea, and Rex of Des Moines, and one daughter, Phyllis, of Eagan, Minn., 13 grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and one brother, Frank, of Toledo.