

MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN

Harley
Rites For Mrs. Stanbro,
A Montezuma Native,
Held In Oskaloosa May 15

Funeral services for a Montezuma native, Mrs. Elizabeth Lee Stanbro, were held in Oskaloosa Thursday, May 15, with burial in the Masonic Cemetery at New Sharon.

Mrs. Stanbro, 68, was found dead at her Oskaloosa home Tuesday, May 13. She probably died Friday, May 9, according to the County Medical Examiner.

MAY 22, 1969

Born in Montezuma, she was the daughter of Joseph H. and Josephine Johnston and the widow of Harley Stanbro who died in 1959.

Survivors include four stepsons, Charles Stanbro of Bend, Ore., Grant Stanbro of Arlington, Wash., and Elvin and David Stanbro of Oskaloosa; four step-daughters, Mrs. Walter (Jessie) Clark Jr., of Rose Hill, Miss Florence Stanbro and Mrs. Frances Terrell, both of Ottumwa, and Mrs. Dale (Beulah) McFall of Beacon.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Joe and Josephine Johnston and one sister, Elvira.