

H-R May 15, 2000

G. Lamar Stanley

G. Lamar Stanley, 80, of Kelley died of complications from Parkinson's disease Monday, May 8, at Altoona Healthcare Center.

Memorial services will be held at a later date, with burial of the remains at Chester Cemetery north of Grinnell. The Smith Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

The son of Ralph and Florence Martindale Stanley, he was born June 13, 1919, on the family farm near Lynnville. He attended Black Oak School and was a 1936 graduate of Lynnville High School.

He was married to Lorraine Stahl Feb. 11, 1944, at Ewart. They farmed in the Sugar Creek, Ewart, Deep River and Gilman areas. In 1957 they moved to Ames where Mr. Stanley worked in the Agriculture Engineering Department at Iowa State University. He later worked as a precision machinist for the National Animal Disease Laboratories. He retired in 1985.

He was a member of the Friends Church, Toastmasters International and Des Moines Men's Garden Club. He served as president of the union local from 1982 through 1985 and was a registered parliamentarian with the National Association of Parliamentarians, practicing as long as his health permitted.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, James of Tendelton, Ore., and Leslie of Kelley; one daughter, Sharon Stanley of Kelley; one sister, Meroe Stanley of Ankeny; five grandchildren; two step-grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

A memorial fund in his name has been established.