

Edith Stedman

(George)

Edith Stedman, 69, of 312 Eleventh St. W., Altoona, Wis., died Friday, May 20, at her home.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Fuller Funeral Home in Eau Claire, Wis., with burial in Rest Haven Gardens Cemetery. Eastern Star services also were conducted.

The daughter of Claude and Bessie Cook Reeves, she was born Feb. 13, 1925, in Kellogg. She was a 1942 graduate of Grinnell High School and attended American Institute of Business in Des Moines.

She worked at the Officer Candidate School in Grinnell until it closed, then was transferred to the induction center at Camp Dodge near Des Moines. After that center was closed, she returned to Grinnell and worked until her marriage.

She was married to George Stedman in 1956, and they moved to Wisconsin. Mrs. Stedman worked for Eau Claire County in the Highway Department, retiring in 1987. She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one son, Scott; twin sisters and one brother. There are no immediate survivors.

H-R

May 26, 1994