

Myrl Stephenson

Myrl C. Stephenson, 60, of Montezuma died Saturday, April 15, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were conducted

April 18 at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. Warren Janes, pastor of the Montezuma Regular Baptist Church, officiating. Soloist was Jarold Greene, and organist was Kathleen Ramsey. Pallbearers were Mike Hasley, Wayne Hasley, Eldon Snook, Harold Ver Steegt, Keith Snook and Chris Wray.

Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery.

The son of Clarence and Florence Mattson Stephenson, he was born Nov. 2, 1934, in Trenton, Mich. He was married to Grace Witttrup May 28, 1955, in Grinnell. They lived north of Malcom before moving to Montezuma 18 years ago.

Mr. Stephenson drove a truck for 26 years, 18 of which were with Miracle Recreation Equipment Co. of Grinnell. He served on the board of directors of Sunnyview Apartments in Montezuma. He attended the Montezuma Regular Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife; four children, Donna Rose Stephenson of Wingate, Ind., Ann Stephenson of Grinnell, Richard of Montour and Matt of Glenwood; seven grandchildren; and one sister, Clara Scott of Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Myrl Stephenson

Myrl C. Stephenson, 60 of Montezuma, died April 15 at Grinnell Hospital.

He was born Nov. 2, 1934 at Trenton, Mich., the son of Clarence and Florence (Mattson) Stephenson. On May 28, 1955 he was united in marriage with Grace Witttrup at the First Baptist Church in Grinnell. They lived north of Malcom, Iowa before moving to Montezuma 18 years ago.

Myrl drove a truck for 26 years. He was serving on the board of directors of Sunnyview Apartments in Montezuma. He attended the Montezuma Regular Baptist Church.

Myrl loved to fish, boat and go camping and found time to garden and do woodworking. He also loved to visit with people.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Myrl is survived by his wife, Grace; four children, Donna Rose Stephenson of Wingate, Ind., Ann Stephen of Grinnell, Richard Stephenson of Montour, and Matt Stephenson of Glenwood; seven grandchildren, Heather, Adam, Angie, Mike, Jake, Kyle and Korry; one sister, Mrs. Virgil (Clara) Scott of Grinnell, and other relatives and many friends.

Service was April 18 at Watts Funeral Home of Montezuma. Officiating the services was Pastor Warren James of Regular Baptist Church, Montezuma.

Musical selections were played by organist Mrs. Kathleen Ramsey, accompanied by soloist Mr. Jarold Greene.

Casket bearers were Mike Hasley, Wayne Hasley, Eldon Snook, Harold VerSteegt, Keith Snook and Chris Wray.

Interment followed services at Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma.

Bc April 26, 1995

