

Kenneth

Lucille A. Stonebraker

Funeral services were held Monday morning, Dec. 1, at the Hansen-Spear Funeral Home, Quincy, Ill., for Mrs. Lucille A. Stonebraker, 80, of Brooklyn, who died Wednesday, Nov. 26, 1997, in Grinnell Regional Medical Center, Grinnell. Burial was in Greenmount Cemetery, Quincy.

Lucille Adah Kirkpatrick Stonebraker, daughter of Jerry Kirkpatrick and Adah M. Henderson Kirkpatrick, was born March 12, 1917, in Centerville.

She received her education in Centerville and graduated from the Centerville Junior College in 1936. She taught in a rural school for two years.

On June 11, 1938, she married Kenneth A. Stonebraker in Corydon. They lived in Centerville until 1960 when they moved to Quincy, Ill. Mr. Stonebraker died Nov. 8, 1984. In June of 1992 Lucille moved to Brooklyn.

She was a member of the Immanuel Baptist Church, Quincy, Church of the Brethren of Brooklyn, and Grace Whipple OES in Quincy.

She was preceded in death by her husband and an infant brother.

Surviving are one son and his wife, Ronald and Judy Stonebraker of Brooklyn; one brother, Jerry Kirkpatrick of Centerville; and two grandsons, Chad Stonebraker of Nevada and Ryan Stonebraker of Brooklyn.

Nevenhoven Funeral Services was in charge of local arrangements. A memorial fund has been established for the Church of the Brethren of Brooklyn.

RC December 3, 1997