Monday Services Conducted For Clyde C. Stover

Funeral services for Clyde C. Stover, 67, Rte. 2, Kellogg, were held Monday afternoon at the Hickory Grove E.U.B. church. He died late Thursday evening at a local hospital where he had been a patient since Christmas Day.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. Roland Wendall and flower bearers were Mrs. Roy Brown and Mrs. Henry Hauersperger. Vocalists were Mrs. Harry Elscott and Mrs. Jack Mason, accompanied by Mrs. Bruce McDowell at the piano.

Serving as pallbearers were Roy Brown, Henry Hauersperger, Chester Humphrey, Jack Mason, John McIlrath and Richard Paul. Burial was in Hickory Grove cemetery with Smith Funeral Home in charge.

He was the son of Daniel and Hannah Jane Myers Stover and was born on Dec. 27th, 1893, in Adeline, Ill. When he was 10 years old the family moved to Iowa and settled in Jasper county near Gilman. He attended the rural schools near his home.

On June 20th, 1917, he was united in marriage with Glenne Smith near Newburg and they made their home west of Newburg, where he farmed, until sickness forced his retirement. For 10 winter they lived in Texas, but returned to live in their former home.

Survivors include his wife and two brothers, Clifford Stover of Columbia, Mo., and Floyd Stover of Marshalltown. He was preceded in death by his parents and three sisters.

Mr. Stover was a member of the Hickory Grove E.U.B. church for many years and took part in many of its activities. He was also a trustee of the church.
