

March 5, 1986

MILO STOWELL

Funeral services for Milo C. Stowell, 74, of Victor were held Tuesday, Mar. 4, at 11 a.m. at St. James Lutheran Church, Victor.

Mr. Stowell died Saturday, Mar. 1, 1986, at Veterans Hospital, Iowa City, after a lengthy illness.

Officiating at the funeral service was the Rev. Michael H. Holm. Mrs. Barry Mohr of Ladora accompanied the congregation as they sang "Who Knows When Death May Overtake Me?", "Abide With Me," and "The Lord is My Shepherd."

In care of flowers were Mrs. Everett Iburg and Mrs. Robert Talbert, both of Victor.

Concluding services and burial were held at the IOOF Cemetery at Victor, with Mr. Stowell's nephews serving as casket-bearers. They were Leo Maser, of Waterloo, Harold and Ronald Maser, both of Oelwein, and Charles, Robert, and Gary Cronbaugh, all of Marengo.

Honorary casketbearers were Raymond Rohrer, Merlin Hull, Robert Talbert and Everett Iburg, all of Victor, and Rene VanHamme of Des Moines and Raymond VanHamme of Cedar Rapids.

Milo Charles Stowell was born Feb. 28, 1912 in Iowa County, Ia. He was the son of Charles and Mary McKusker Stowell. He attended school in Fayette County while the family resided there.

He was married to Irene Maas April 16, 1949 at St. James Lutheran Church, Victor. He was employed at Saffen Service Station for 20 years and at the HLV Community School as a custodian for 10 years.

He was a veteran of the United States Army, serving in the Pacific Theater in WWII. He was a member of St. James Lutheran Church and the Harold Smith Post of the American Legion.

He is survived by his wife Irene, two sons, Roger and his wife Linda of St. Chapes, Ia., and Dan and his wife Diane of Victor, five grandchildren, two sisters, Lela Winegar of Arlington, Ia., and Maxine (Mrs. Cecil) Cronbaugh of Belle Plaine.

March 5, 1986

MILO STOWELL

The Brooklyn Paper

He was preceded in death by his parents.