Mrs. Strovers
rites Friday

Beulah W. Strovers, 85, of Grinnell died of complications from diabetes Tuesday, Aug. 2, at the Mayflower Home Health Care Center.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Ben F. Hearn, chaplain of the Mayflower Home, officiating. Burial will be in Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Aart and Adrenna Louisa Bailey Van Zant, she was born Jan. 4, 1903, in Lynnville. She moved with her family to Grinnell, attending school here and later completing her education in the Lynnville schools.

She was married to Clarence E. Strovers Dec. 3, 1921, in Newton. The couple moved to Grinnell in 1930 where Mrs. Strovers worked as a cook and waitress and in the meat department at the former United Foods store. The couple retired in 1952 and moved to St. Petersburg, Fla. Following Mr. Strovers' death, she returned to Grinnell and Newton in 1967. She had been a resident of the Mayflower Home since 1984. She was a member of the Grinnell American Legion Auxiliary and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Post Office.

Surviving are two sons, Paul J. of Grinnell and C. Edd of St. Petersburg; seven grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and one sister, Doris Brooks Martin. She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; and one sister, Evaline B. Lohrer.
