

James Schalinke

Mollie Stutzman
Rites Tuesday <sup>H-12</sup> <sub>11-14-71</sub>

Mollie Stutzman, 90, of 715 Pearl St., died Sunday, Nov. 14, at Grinnell General Hospital following an extended illness.

The daughter of William and Catherine Russ Lotz, Mrs. Stutzman was born on April 9, 1881 at Monroe, Iowa. She received her education in the Monroe public schools.

In 1900 she was united in marriage to James Stafford. He preceded her in death.

In 1935 she was married to A. L. Stutzman. He preceded her in death in 1961.

Mrs. Stutzman had made her home in Grinnell since 1950. Previous to this she lived in Farmington, Iowa, and also for a few years in Oskaloosa.

Survivors include her daughters—Mrs. Catherine McCallum of Grinnell and Mrs. Ina Mitchell of Farmington; 11 grandchildren; 32 great-grandchildren and eight great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Stutzman was preceded in death by her parents, two husbands, a brother, a sister and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services for Mrs. Stutzman will be Tuesday, Nov. 16, at 2 p.m. at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home.

Burial will be in the Monroe Silent City Cemetery at Monroe, Iowa.

Funeral Services Held For Mollie Stutzman

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 16, at the James Schalinske Funeral Home for Mollie Stutzman, 90, who died Sunday, Nov. 14, at Grinnell General Hospital.

John Brodene officiated at the services; organist was Mrs. Leonard Pearce.

Members of the flower committee were Mildred Sowerwine and Cora Peterson.

Pallbearers were Don Sowerwine, Roy Johnson, Harry Icken, John Anderson, Jess Routier and W. M. Oltrogge.

Burial was in Silent City Cemetery at Monroe.

Survivors include two daughters--Mrs. Catherine McCallum of Grinnell and Mrs. Ina Mitchell of Farmington; 11 grandchildren; 32 great-grandchildren; and eight great-great-grandchildren.