

H-R July 12, 1984

Raymond Swain dies in Austin

Raymond Swain, 77, of Austin, Minn., died there recently, relatives here have learned.

A 40-year employee of George Hormel and Co. at Austin, Mr. Swain was a star football player at Brooklyn before moving to Austin. He has also worked as a distributor for the Minneapolis Star-Journal.

Surviving are his wife, Ann; two sisters, Mary Jane Diedrick and Ruth Miller of Grinnell; two brothers, Truman and George Swain of Austin; one son; two grandchildren; and several great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Addie Swain; six brothers; and one sister.