

Frank Swanson
G. H. ⁶⁻¹⁷⁻¹⁹³²
Of Brooklyn
Passes Away

Frank Swanson, 60, died early Tuesday morning at his home in Brooklyn. Mr. Swanson had been in failing health for the past several weeks and his condition had been critical for some time.

Mrs. Swanson and one daughter, Frances, survive him besides one brother, Albert, also of Brooklyn.

Mr. Swanson, has lived in and around Brooklyn all his life residing in earlier years on the home farm southwest of Brooklyn.

Funeral services were held from the home Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Burial was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mr. Swanson will be mourned by a host of friends.