

Milton Grosenbach

Milton Grosenbach, 85, of Gettysburg, Pa., died Saturday, Dec. 18, at Beverly Healthcare in Gettysburg.

Graveside services and interment will take place at a later date in Grinnell. Arrangements are being handled by Monahan Funeral Home in Gettysburg. Memorials may be made to Hospice of The Good Shepherd, 1075 Old Harrisburg Road, Gettysburg, Pa. 17352.

He was born June 13, 1919, in Melvin, Ill., the son of Albert J. and Edith Williams Grosenbach. He was involved for many years in farming. He was a veteran of the United States Army in World War II. He was a member of the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club.

He is survived by one son, Dr. M. James Grosenbach Jr., Lapeer, Mich.; two daughters, Patricia A. Symmes, Gettysburg, and Diane H. McCoy, Carlisle, Pa.; seven grandchildren; eight great grandchildren, and two brothers, Gerald Grosenbach and Arthur Grosenbach of Grinnell. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Cieta M. Arnold Grosenbach in 1994; one brother Emory and one sister Alberta.

H-R 12/23/2004