

MR - JAN. 28 2004

Lavone N. McCaulley, 84

Lavone Naomi McCaulley, 84, of Montezuma, died Sunday, Jan. 25, 2004, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center, Grinnell.

Her funeral service will be held at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, Jan. 28, at Watts Funeral Home, with the Rev. Howard Lord of Montezuma, officiating. Visitation with the family will be from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 27, at Watts Funeral Home. Internment will be at Jackson Township Memorial, Montezuma.

Pallbearers will be Mark Anderson, Curt Anderson, Kevin Osborn, Ken Osborn, Craig Hall and Billy Johnson.

Lavone was born Aug. 21, 1919, at Guernsey, the daughter of Hefmon and Lydia (Schrader) Davis. On Oct. 12, 1941, she was united in marriage with William McCaulley at Unionville, Mo. They made their home in Montezuma. Lavone worked for the Montezuma Telephone Company for nine and one-half years and retired from the Poweshiek County Auditor's office after working there 19-1/2 years. She was a member of the Montezuma Literary Club.

Those left to honor Lavone's memory are her husband of 62 years, William (Bill) McCaulley, of Montezuma; four sisters, Virginia Johnson, Ladonna Anderson, Phyllis (Glenn) Osborn, and Deema (Robert) Hall, all of Montezuma; nieces and nephews, and other relatives and friends.