

Betty D. Story, 80

Betty Darlene (Tinkle) Story, 80, of Malcom, died Tuesday, June 15, 2004, at Friendship Manor in Grinnell.

Her funeral service was Friday, June 18, at Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma, with the Rev. Virgil Scott, of the Malcom Methodist Church, and the Rev. John Reynolds, of the Malcom Presbyterian Church, officiating. A private inurnment was held at Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

Betty was born Oct. 6, 1923, at Brooklyn, and was raised and went to school in the Brooklyn area. She attended high school through 12th grade, but quit to take care of her grandparents. On Dec. 5, 1942, she was united in marriage with Fredrick Jarvis Story at Montezuma. To this union, four children were born, Sharon, Roy, Elaine and Cindy Jo. They lived south of Indianola for several years and managed the Superior 400 Gas Station & Restaurant at Lake Aquabi Junction. They moved back to Malcom where Fred died Jan. 31, 1971. She also managed the Malcom Mini-Mart. Betty had also cooked at both truck stops and was a janitor of the Malcom School. She was baptized and a member of the Malcom Methodist Church. She had been a member of the Jaycee-ettes, served on the Malcom City Council, belonged to the Malcom Ruritans and managed the Malcom Auditorium for many years. She had served on the Malcom Manor Board since 1981. She lived in her own home for 30 years before moving to the Malcom Manor. She liked to cook and garden and enjoyed camping with family and friends.

Betty is survived by five brothers and sisters, Bill (Francine) Tinkle of Grinnell; Bonnie (Lawrence) Ward of Memphis, Mo.; Vernon (Louella) Tinkle of Memphis, Mo.; Verlan (Iva) Tinkle of Malcom; and Rosy Tinkle Lindenman of Barnes City; her four children, Sharon (Doug) Robison of Malcom; Roy (Phyllis) Story of Grinnell; Elaine (Robert) Hunerdosse of Knoxville; and Cindy Jo (Roger) Evans of Victor; 11 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, several nephews, nieces, and other relatives and many friends.

Memorials have been established in her name.

A funeral service was held Friday, June 18, at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma with the Rev. Virgil Scott of Malcom Methodist Church and the Rev. John Reynolds of Malcom Presbyterian Church officiating. Organist was Alice Waechter. Private inurnment took place in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom. Memorial contributions may be made to four different recipients.

She was born Oct. 6, 1923, in Brooklyn where she grew up and attended school through 12th grade before leaving to care for her grandparents. On Dec. 5, 1942, she was united in marriage with Frederick Jarvis Story in Montezuma. They resided south of Indianola where they managed the Superior 400 Gas Station and Restaurant at Lake Aquabi Junction. They returned to Malcom where her husband died on Jan. 31, 1971. She managed the Malcom Mini-Mart, cooked at two truck stops and was janitor of the Malcom school. She was baptized and was a member of the Malcom United Methodist Church. She had been a member of the Malcom Jaycettes, served on the Malcom City Council, belonged to Malcom Ruritans and managed the Malcom Auditorium for many years. She also served on the Malcom Manor board of directors since 1981. She had lived in her own home for 30 years before moving to Malcom Manor. She enjoyed cooking, gardening and camping with family and friends.

She is survived by one son Roy Story of Grinnell and three daughters, Sharon Robison of Malcom, Elaine Hunerdosse of Knoxville and Cindy Jo Evans of Victor; 11 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren; three brothers, Bill Tinkle of Grinnell, Vernon Tinkle of Malcom, and two sisters, Bonnie Ward, Memphis, Mo., and Rosy Lindenman, Barnes City. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband Fred.

Betty Story

Betty Darlene Tinkle Story, 80, of Malcom died Tuesday, June 15, 2004, at Friendship Manor.

MR - JUNE 23, 2004

H-R - JUNE 21, 2004