Funeral Services For Albric Taghon

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Aug. 22 at St. Michael's Catholic church for Albric Taghon, Belle Plaine, who passed away at his home late Sunday evening. He had been ill the past four months. Death was due to cancer.

Albric Taghon, the son of Fredric and Marie Plyhie Taghon, was born at Lootenhulle, Belgium, Sept. 9, 1882. In 1903 he came to the United States. In 1913 he returned to Belgium and was married to María G. Covent at Ghent. They returned to the United States and farmed in the Victor vicinity for three years, 23 years near Belle Plaine and 13 years in the Montezuma community. In 1955 he retired and came to Belle Plaine to make their home.

They were the parents of four children, Albert Taghon, Keswick; Maurice Taghon, Minneapolis, Minn., John Taghon, St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Clyde (Margaret) Villers, Montezuma, Ia., who survive with his wife, Maria. Other survivors are one sister, 11 grandchildren, four great grandchildren and five nephews and two nieces.

He was a member of St. Michael's Catholic church. Father Edward S. Flynn officiated at the service.

Pallbearers were Asiel De Rycke, Camiel Van Nevel, Richard Van Horbeck, Charles Hazen, Rene De Caluwe and Fred De Meyer.

Interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

Rosary was recited at the Hrabak Funeral home Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.
