RIDGEWOOD — Everett R. Tarvin of Largo, Fla., a former village and Ho-Ho-Kus resident, died Thursday at his home. He was 71 years old.

A native of Malcolm, Iowa, he lived in the village and Ho-Ho-Kus 29 years and then in Cincinnati, Ohio, and Leonia, before moving to Florida six months ago. He was an engineer in the operations and engineering department of American Telephone and Telegraph Company's Longlines Division for 44 years before his retirement in 1971.

He was active with the Ridgewood-Glen Rock Council, Boy Scouts of America, and was awarded scouting's highest adult award, the Silver Beaver in 1953. He also was a past president of the Bergen County Audubon Society and editor of its Blue Jay newspaper, a former Great Books Discussion Group leader, a former member of Christ Episcopal Church, and a member of the Telephone Pioneers of America.

A 1923 graduate of Montezuma High School, Montezuma, Iowa, he was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Grinnell College in Iowa in 1927 and a Tau Beta Phi graduate of Columbia University in 1930, receiving an electrical engineering degree. He was also a member of Sigma Xi, national science fraternity.

Survivors include three sons, Roy of the village, Jim of Washingtonville, N.Y. and Charles of Hackensack; a daughter, Mrs. Sally Guinessey of Pittsburgh, Pa.; four brothers, Col. C.E. Tarvin of Leonia, Raymond, Floyd and Clark, all of Iowa; two sisters, Mrs. Bertha Vandenberg of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and Mrs. Marjorie Little of Iowa, and 14 grandchildren.

A memorial service will be conducted today at 1 p.m. at Christ Episcopal Church. Interment will be in Chester Township Cemetery, Grinnell, Iowa.

Memorial donations to the American Cancer Society would be appreciated.
