Velda Tatter

Private graveside services were conducted Saturday, May 5, at Hazelwood Cemetery for Velda G. Tatter, 88, of Water-vliet, Mich., a former Grinnell resident and a graduate of Grinnell College.

Mrs. Tatter died Oct. 12, 1989. The body was cremated.

The Smith Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements here. The Rev. David Bowman, pastor of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiated at the services.

Mrs. Tatter was born Oct. 9, 1901, in Diagonal, Iowa. She was a graduate of Greenfield High School, then attended Grinnell College.

She and her husband, Henry, operated Camp Water-vliet, a girls' camp in Michigan, for 40 years until their retirement. She also was a high school teacher in Casey, Oak Park and River Forest, Ill., and taught at Paducah Junior College and Denver University.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Jordan of Water-vliet; a daughter, Jeannine Lakey of Kissimmee, Fla.; six grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.
