

(LaDean)

Norma L. Tayler

Norma L. (Polly) Tayler, 64, Marshalltown, mother of Laurie Hauser, died Friday, May 12, at Methodist Hospital, Houston, Texas.

Funeral services were held Tuesday,
May 16, at Pursel-Davis Funeral Home, Marshalltown, with the Rev. Jerald Swanberg, pastor of First United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Riverside Cemetery, Marshalltown.
A memorial has been established in her name.

She was born Oct. 1, 1930, at Rhodes, the daughter of James and Edna Wood Hoy, and was raised and educated in Rhodes. On Oct. 30, 1952, she was married to LaDean Tayler in Marshalltown, where they resided throughout their married life, wintering for the past several years in Zapata, Texas.

She was a member of the Marshalltown Bowling League.

She is survived by her husband, LaDean Tayler, Marshalltown; one son Thomas Tayler, Iowa City; one daughter Laurie Hauser, Grinnell; three grandchildren: one brother, Marlin Hoy, Nashville, Tenn., and two sisters, Ramona Coyle and LaVonne Weaver, both of Marshalltown. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, one sister and twin brothers in infancy. H - R

May 18, 1995