(Robert)

Gladys Taylor Services Aug. 5

Mrs. Gladys Ann Taylor of Prairie Village, Kan., the former Gladys Ann Smith, daughter of Mrs. Frances Smith of Grinnell and the late Dawson H. Smith, died Sunday, Aug. 4, at the University of Kansas Medical Center. She was 41.

She was born on July 12, 1929, at South Bend, Ind. She graduated with the class of 1947 from Grinnell High School. She studied to be a beautician, and after several years in that profession she became a Trans World Airlines hostess and a member of the Kansas City chapter of TWA Clipped Wings.

She was an active member of many organizations, including the Children's Rehabilitation Unit Auxiliary at the University of Kansas Medical Center.

Surviving are her husband Robert; a son, Jeffrey; a daughter, Janet; two sisters, Mrs. Shirley Palmer of LaHabra, Calif., and Mrs. Kay Burnham; of Grinnell; and her mother, Mrs. Frances Smith of Grinnell.

She was preceded in death by her father and a brother, William.

Services were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 5, at St. John's United Methodist Church, Kansas City, Kan., with burial in Johnson County Memorial Gardens.
