

Mary Taylor services held

Mary E. Taylor, 87, of 816 Center St., died Wednesday evening, Nov. 27, at Grinnell General Hospital, following an extended illness.

Services for Mrs. Taylor were held Saturday morning, Nov. 30, at 10 a.m. at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home. The Rev. Hugh A. Shiveley of the First Baptist Church officiated.

The daughter of Jacob and Sarah Wilson Cale, she was born Jan. 8, 1887, at Creston, Ia. Her parents moved to Joplin, Mo., and she was educated there. She was married to Daniel Delaney Taylor on Feb. 8, 1905, at Joplin.

Following their marriage, the couple lived near Joplin for a number of years. They also moved to Iowa and farmed and then returned to Missouri. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Taylor moved to Grinnell.

She is survived by her children, Mrs. Bill (Millie) Badger of Grinnell; John Henry Taylor of Mansville, Ill.; Charles D. Taylor of Ogden, Utah; Lewis Willard Taylor of Tama; Mrs. Merle (Pauline) Baker of Wichita, Kan.; Theodore O. Taylor of Davenport; Mrs. Harry (Opal) English of Des Moines; and Mrs. Ervin (Helen) Teggatz of Marengo; 29 grandchildren; 52 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; and several step-grandchildren and step-great-grandchildren.

11-27-74

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, who died Feb. 21, 1957; a son, Daniel D. Taylor Jr., who died Oct. 27, 1965; and her twin son and daughter, who died in infancy; and two sons-in-law, Ervin Teggatz and Carl Jones.

Organist at the services was Margaret Amo. Pallbearers were Robert Taylor, Lewis Taylor, Danny Taylor, Roy Taylor, Jim English, and Merton Aldridge.

Burial was in the Chapel Cemetery at Chapel, Mo.

(Danielle)