

RICHARD JOHN TAYLOR

Richard John Taylor, 42, of 925 N. Dodge St., Iowa City, formerly of Brooklyn, died Monday, Nov. 7, 1988, at Mercy Hospital, Iowa City.

The son of John W. and Margery Ardella McSherry Taylor, he was born June 15, 1946, at Grinnell, Iowa. He attended school at the Guernsey Grade School and was a 1965 graduate of the BGM High School, Brooklyn.

On March 22, 1975, he was married to Patricia Kay Hoodjer in the Little Brown Church in Nashua, Ia. He lived most of his life in Poweshiek County. He worked for Amana Refrigeration and later worked for Y and M Hardware in Brooklyn. From 1970 until 1987 he owned and operated Dick's Plumbing and Heating in Brooklyn. The family moved to Iowa City in 1987 where Dick was employed by Roe Heating and Air Conditioning.

He had been a member of the Brooklyn Volunteer Fire Department for 18 years and served 9

Brooklyn Chron

11-16-1988

Richard J. Taylor
years in the National Guard. He had been a member of the Grace United Methodist Church in Brooklyn.

He is survived by his mother Margery Ardella Taylor of Grinnell; his wife Patricia Kay of Iowa City; three sons, Leslie John, Nathan Richard, and William Charles, and one daughter Angela Marie all at home; one sister Barbara Taylor of Vinton; four brothers Raymond Taylor of Brooklyn, Jim Taylor of Phoenix, Ariz., Kenneth Taylor of Boulder, Colo., and Emmett Taylor of Cedar Falls.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents and his father.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m., Thursday, at the McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home, Victor, with the Rev. Kalen Fristad of Grace United Methodist Church of Brooklyn officiating. Organist was Angie Hawkins of Brooklyn. In charge of flowers were Dan, Jr., and Dorothy McConnell of Brooklyn and Dick and Diana Hansen of Victor. The Pall Bearers were Clark Bohbrink, Craig Hall, Roger Nelson, Terry Roberts and Raymond Williams all of Brooklyn.

Burial was in Brooklyn Cemetery in Brooklyn.

A memorial fund has been established in his name. The McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

H-R
November 10, 1988

Richard Taylor dies

Richard Taylor, 42, Iowa City, formerly of Brooklyn, died Monday at Mercy Hospital, Iowa City, of a heart attack. Nov. 8

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home in Victor with burial in the Brooklyn Cemetery. A memorial fund in his name has been established at the funeral home.

He was the son of John W. and Margery Ardella McSherry Taylor and was born June 15, 1946, at Grinnell. He attended school at Guernsey and was a 1965 graduate of BGM High School, Brooklyn. On March 22, 1975, he married Patricia Kay Hoodjer in Nashua. He lived most of his life in Poweshiek County and had worked for Amana Refrigeration. He later worked for Y&M Hardware and owned and operated Dick's Plumbing and Heating, both in Brooklyn. The family moved to Iowa City in 1987 where he was employed at Roe Heating and Air Conditioning.

He was an 18-year member of the Brooklyn Volunteer Fire Department, had served nine years in the National Guard and had been a member of Grace United Methodist Church in Brooklyn.

He is survived by his mother; his wife; three sons Leslie John, Nathan Richard and William Charles; one daughter Angela Marie; one sister Barbara Taylor, Vinton; four brothers, Raymond, Brooklyn, Jim, Phoenix, Ariz., Kenneth, Boulder, Colo., and Emmett, Cedar Falls. He was preceded in death by his father.