Wilma Taylor

rites Friday

Wilma Taylor

Wilma Beatrice Taylor, 64, the wife of Edward W. Taylor of 433 Park St., Grinnell, died Wednesday morning at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with Norman Rasmussen, pastor of the Grinnell Seventh Day Adventist Church, officiating. Organist will be Mrs. Willard Heffner. Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of George E. and Emma A. Johnson Schafer, she was born July 9, 1911, in Malcom. While she was young, she moved with her family to a farm east of Grinnell. She attended rural school near her home and was graduated from Grinnell High School in 1930.

On June 28, 1933, she was married to Edward William Taylor in Kirksville, Mo. The couple had two children, Carroll and Shirley Mae.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor lived in Ottumwa, Corning and Baxter before moving to Grinnell in 1944.

Mrs. Taylor was a member of the Grinnell Seventh Day Adventist Church and the Grinnell Firemen's Auxiliary. She had worked for the Ben Franklin store and Leeper Music Co. in Grinnell for a number of years.

Survivors include her husband, Edward; her two children, Carroll W. Taylor of Webster City and Mrs. Robert (Shirley Mae) Fuqua of Ames; four grandchildren; two brothers, Glenn Schafer of Grinnell and Delmar Schafer of Omaha, Neb.; and five sisters, Mrs. Ira (Ellen) Strawser of Grinnell, Mrs. Henry (Lilly) Majerus of Des Moines, Mrs. Twyla Andes of Montezuma, Mrs. Irene Rhoads of Knoxville, and Mrs. John (Ella) Florer of Des Moines.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Should friends desire, memorials in Mrs. Taylor's name may be made to the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Grinnell.
