

Wilma L. Taylor

(MARVIN E.)

MR June 20, 2001

Wilma L. Taylor, age 94 of Marengo, formerly of Millersburg, died Sunday, June 10, 2001 at Rose Haven Nursing Home, Marengo following an extended illness. Funeral services were held at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, June 13, 2001 at Kloster Funeral Home, Marengo with Pastor Douglas Morton officiating. Burial will be in the Goldenrod Cemetery, Deep River, Iowa.

Webster, Gibson and Deep River. They owned and operated Taylor Feed, and Taylor Grocery in Millersburg, and also managed the skating rink in Millersburg. Mr. Taylor died in September of 1980.

Wilma was a homemaker, enjoyed gardening, and her pets, especially dogs and birds. She was a member of the Deep River Church of Christ. Since 1997 she had made her home at Rose Haven Nursing Home due to failing health.

Memorials may be contributed to the Deep River Church of Christ or St. John's Lutheran Church, Marengo.

She is survived by two sons, William E. Taylor of Millersburg and Keith E. Taylor and wife Myra of Marengo; two grandchildren, Ronda Scheidt and husband Dennis of Cedar Rapids, Renee Taylor of Marengo; and a great-grandchild, Rachel Scheidt of Cedar Rapids.

Wilma Lucille Fahrney was born April 14, 1907 in rural Deep River, Iowa, the daughter of William and Alma (Kimes) Fahrney. She graduated from Deep River High School and married Marvin Ellsworth Taylor on June 7, 1925 at the Christian Church Parsonage in Deep River. The couple farmed in Iowa and Poweshiek counties near Williamsburg,

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Marvin; two brothers, Kenneth and Marion Fahrney; a sister, Esther Fahrney; and a son, Melvin, in infancy.