

JOHN TERABERRY DIES

John Teraberry was born near High Bridge, New Jersey, March 25, 1842 and died in Grinnell, April 2, 1926, at the age of 84 years and 8 days.

While but a boy he came west with his parents to a home near Princeton, Ill. Later they moved to a farm near Malcom, Iowa. These intervening years have been spent in and near Malcom.

April 27, 1920 he came to live with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kingsland. At times he has suffered extremely but always bore it bravely and uncomplainingly, and was grateful to those who ministered to his needs. He leaves two brothers, Dr. Joe Teraberry of New York City and Jacob Teraberry of Malcom, and two sisters; Mrs. Mary Kramer and Mrs. Carrie See, both of New Jersey.

The funeral, conducted by Rev. W. B. Wilson, was held at the J. A. Kingsland home at 10:30 Monday, April 5, and the body was laid at rest in the Malcom cemetery. 4-6-1926

G-14