

Lloyd J. Terlouw

Lloyd John Terlouw, 68, of the Iowa Veterans Home in Marshall town died Saturday, April 18, at the home.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at Van Dyk Duven Funeral Home in Pella, with Pastor Tim M. Sigler officiating. Casket bearers were Alvin and Stanley Fopma, Harlan Terlouw, James and Leon Vander Weerd and Ronald Willemsen. Honorary bearers were Bryce Fopma; Rick and Roger Hurst; Merlin, Michael, Randall and Timothy Terlouw; Kelvin Vander Weerd; and Robert Willemsen.

Burial was in Sully Cemetery, with military rites conducted by members of Van Veen-VanHemert American Legion Post of Pella.

He was the son of John O. and Phoebe Ann Renaud Terlouw and was born March 25, 1930, in Sully. He completed the eighth grade at Chester Country Grade School near Sully, then served for two years overseas with the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict.

Following his discharge, he lived with his parents in Sully until their deaths. He then moved to Okaloosa where he did yard work and aspired to be a seed corn salesman.

His health began to decline, and he moved to the Iowa Veterans Home in 1990.

He is survived by four sisters, Arletta Baarda of Sully, Jennie Marie Hurst of Glendale, Calif., Isabelle Vander Weerd of Lynnville and Theda Fopma of Grinnell; and two brothers, Henry of Sully and Marion of Prairie City.

A memorial has been established with the Iowa Veterans Home.
